

EDITORIAL

Dear readers,

The editorial team of UNESCO em Revista is delighted to present to you the 2024 edition of volume 8, n. 1.

Considering that UNESCO em Revista is a multidisciplinary publication that believes in knowledge, in its various lines, for scientific growth, the issue consists of six articles and the works were peer-reviewed according to the submission rules pre-established on the journal's website.

In order to make the edition operational, the editorial committee was made up of the Serra campus librarian Ms. Adriana de Moura Gasparino, CRB-516/ES, Master's Degree in Library Science from the Federal University of the State of Rio de Janeiro - Unirio, Postgraduate Degree in Information Science and Executive MBA in People Management, Bachelor's Degree in Library Science from the Federal University of Espírito Santo. By the Librarian of the Colatina campus Master's student Daniele S. Cherubino Simões, CRB-746/ES, Master's student in Education at the Federal University of Espírito Santo, Specialist in Philosophy and Psychoanalysis for Teacher Training at the Federal University of Espírito Santo, Specialist in Informatics in Education at the Federal Institute of Espírito Santo, Degree in Library Science from the Federal University of Espírito Santo. And by Ms. Geraldo Magela Freitas dos Santos, Master in Education-Educational Management from the Universidad Politécnica Salesiana (Quito, Ecuador). Lato sensu postgraduate course in School Supervision. Degree in Pedagogy. By Professor Dr. Tatiani Bellettini-Santos, graduated in Biological Sciences/Bachelor's degree from the Universidade do Extremo Sul Catarinense (UNESC). Master's in Education and Doctorate in Health Sciences from UNESC/SC. And also by Professor Dr. Clairton Marcolongo-Pereira, who has a degree in Administration from the Assistance and Education Foundation - FAESA, Veterinary Medicine from the Vila Velha University, a Residency in Veterinary Medicine from the University of Vila Velha, a Master's Degree in Animal Health from the Federal University of Pelotas, and a PhD in Animal Health from the Federal University of Pelotas.

Many thanks to all the authors who believe in the journal and have submitted articles for publication, to the referees for their availability and to the UNESCO em Revista editorial team, which works for educational and scientific development. May education be the beacon that lights the way for all who seek knowledge.

Reflection ...

*"I'm just me. I differ from everyone...
I hardly know anything. But I'm suspicious of a lot of things."*

Guimarães Rosa
Grande Sertão: Veredas. Rio de Janeiro: Nova Aguilar, 1994.